Academics & Counseling

SAT Prep - Khan Academy

All Juniors will receive their PSAT scores from their English teacher this week. Complete interpretations of their scores can be found on the College Board website. If your son has not set up an account in College Board, he can do that by using the Access Code on the score report.

The College Board has partnered with the Khan Academy to provide personalized preparation for the SAT that is online and free of charge. Your son can automatically authorize the College Board to provide the Khan Academy with his PSAT results, which allows the Khan Academy to create a personalized SAT Test preparation. Please contact Dr. Cox or Dr. Eulberg if you have any questions.
